

More About our Board of Directors

Keffory Levy, President

Keffory Levy is AZNHA's 2017/2018 President and is Director of Operations for All Valley Home Health Care & Nursing. All Valley has been an AZNHA member since 2011. Keffory believes that exhibiting caring and gratitude in everything we do is very important in our daily lives.

Zach Shaw, Vice President

Zach joined the AZNHA Board in May, 2015. He is COO of Affordable Home Care Solution, who has been an AZNHA member since its inception. Zach believes that it is our duty as members of the community, to help guide and protect each other from potential abuse by providing full disclosure about the services we offer and to be a resource for those seeking care

Bob Dailey, Treasurer

Bob Dailey is one of the four founding members of AZNHA who formed the organization to establish high standards of practice for an industry with no state licensure. He has owned Visiting Angels in Mesa for 14 years, and is the only founder remaining on the board. Bob is and always has been an outspoken advocate for community members who need our services.

Leona Brown, Director

Leona Brown has 20 years' experience working with seniors who receive in home care. This is Leona's second year on the AZNHA board and she uses her experience to help AZNHA advocate for consumers and uphold quality in home care. Leona brings her knowledge of AHCCCS/ALTCS to the board from her employment with Mercy Care Plan in Tucson.

Dayna Klecak, Director

Dayna Klecak has been in the home care industry for 9 years. Her professional experience encompasses caregiving, hospice, and home health. She currently serves on the board as an Independent Member. Dayna's passion is helping people and being on the forefront of change for the home and community based services industry. Dayna has been Chair of AZNHA's Education Committee Phoenix, and a major contributor to the AZNHA Event Committee.

Lisa Martinez, Director

Lisa is a 10+ year hospice professional with Hospice of the Valley, serving the greater Phoenix. Previously, Lisa worked for a non-medical franchise, and also as an HR professional for several organizations. Lisa's passion is quality end of life Hospice care, and making certain the community is educated about the hospice benefit available to them. Lisa has been an active participant on AZNHA's Events Committee.

Monica Bananto, Director

Monica has been in the health care industry for 5 years, and is currently with Visiting Angels East Valley as their Care Management Manager. Monica says she has chosen to be on the AZNHA board because she wants to gap the bridge between other care services to see how together we can provide the best care for our clients/patients. Monica has been an active participant on AZNHA's Events Committee.

Aaron Sinykin, Director

Aaron is CEO of Devoted Guardians, Inc. which has been in business, and an AZNHA Member, since 2013). He has been and is very active on AZNHA's AHCCCS/ALTCS committee. Aaron says he has always felt it was his duty to serve if called upon, and believes he can bring a unique perspective to the board as an independent agency owner.

Vanessa Vittoria, Director

Vanessa Vittoria is the owner of Avid Home Care in Tucson AZ. Vanessa has an extensive background in both accounting and marketing. As a new board member, she joined AZNHA to help advocate for seniors in the home care community. Vanessa serves as AZNHA's Education Committee Chair for Tucson.

Tom White, Director

Tom White has been with Accent Care since 2015 as an Area Operations Manager. In 2017 he received his MBA from ASU's W P Carey School of Business. Prior to his joining Accent Care, he worked with Team Select Home Care in Phoenix as Regional Operations manager. Tom wants to better connect with his peers in the non-medical in-home care arena and have a greater impact on the direction of the industry in Arizona
