Dr. Alison Pattison, Founder and CEO

- Alison has focused her passion for teaching and learning for over 25 years to author and develop over two hundred online and in-person courses that maximize adult learning. Alison's background includes 15 years of teaching and counseling at the elementary and high school levels in both Arizona and Louisiana as well as teaching graduate education courses at ASU, NAU, LSU, and GCU.
- Alison currently serves as CEO of APT and in addition serves as Doctoral faculty at Grand Canyon University.

Alison received her Master's degree in Education: School Counseling and Doctorate in Education: Organizational Leadership (with emphasis in Instructional leadership) from Grand Canyon University.

About us...

- We were founded in 2017 with the mission to provide high quality, superior training in the most cost-effective way. We have done this through implementing best-practices in adult education, integrating the latest technology, and a focus on customer satisfaction.
- Along the way, we have developed our own internal learning management system to provide an excellent online educational experience.
- APT trains 12,000 + students with live in –person courses and online courses each year. We have 8 different training centers throughout the state of Arizona. With new agencies being added each week, we are thriving. We are truly honored and blessed to work with all our learners and agencies.

APT Core Values

- Deliver exceptional service in all that we do: Our goal is to provide amazing customer service. We are here 6 days a week.
- Relentless Forward Motion: Our team strives to push the boundaries of education, providing high-quality training for the professionals we serve.
- Embrace and Drive Change: We are not scared of change, instead we embrace it and weave it into the fabric our culture.
- Open and Honest Communication: Problems are solved through honest, respectful communication.
- Be Passionate and Authentic: We hire fired-up, passionate, and experienced instructors and team members.
